

Media Kit

Selfhelp is dedicated to maintaining the independence and dignity of vulnerable New Yorkers through a range of housing, home health care, and social services.

Selfhelp Community Services welcomes inquiries from the media. Our team includes experts on affordable housing, home care, social services, aging services, and we are skilled at best practices to serve vulnerable populations including Holocaust survivors. We can arrange interviews with our clients, including Holocaust survivors.

Overview

Selfhelp Community Services was founded in 1936 to help those fleeing Nazi Germany maintain their independence and dignity as they struggled to forge new lives in America. Today, Selfhelp is one of the largest and most respected not-for-profit human service agencies in the New York metropolitan area, with 46 program locations throughout Manhattan, Brooklyn, Queens, the Bronx, and Long Island. Selfhelp provides a broad set of services to more than 20,000 elderly, frail, and vulnerable New Yorkers each year, while remaining the largest provider of comprehensive services to Holocaust survivors in North America.

Mission

Selfhelp is dedicated to maintaining the independence and dignity of seniors and at-risk populations through a spectrum of housing, home health care, and social services and will lead in applying new methods and technologies to address changing needs of its community. Selfhelp will continue to serve as the “last surviving relative” to its historic constituency, victims of Nazi persecution.
